BAPTISMS: Celebrated on the first Sunday of the month at 12:30 or 3:00 pm. Parents should call the rectory at least four weeks in advance, and must attend instructions which are held on the third Thursday of the month. Church Law requires that only Catholics in good standing are eligible to be Godparents. No Baptisms will be scheduled during Lent.

ANNOINTING OF THE SICK: We offer this sacrament to those who are seriously ill, at home or in the hospital. We urge you to contact the Rectory before someone goes to the hospital for an operation. (A priest may not be available later.)

MINISTRY OF THE SICK: Holy Communion will be brought to the sick, upon request. The bedridden or chronically ill can be placed on the "Eucharistic Ministers" Visitation Schedule.

WEDDINGS: Engaged couple must make arrangements, in person, with a priest at the Rectory, at least six months in advance.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP: We welcome all new members to our parish. Please register at the Rectory by phone or in person. Registration forms are available at the entrances to the Churches. Also, please notify the Rectory if your address has changed or if you would like to be added to the weekly envelope system.

Encyclical on the Environment (5)

In his June, 2015, encyclical on creation care, Laudato Si', Pope Francis proclaims that the poor are those most harmed by environmental destruction and climate change, and that developed countries like ours owe the poor an "environmental debt". With Pope Francis we pray, "O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, ...that we may protect the world and not prey on it." In the encyclical, we are urged to do what we can to support global agreements on sustainable development, on protecting ecosystems globally, and on limiting greenhouse gases to a greater extent in developed countries than in poor countries. We are encouraged to reduce our consumption and reduce our carbon footprint.

WEEKLY FOCUS

Jesus is the image of the invisible God.

Like the prophets who preceded him, Jesus' life and ministry was tied to the Temple. It was there that he was presented by Mary and Joseph at forty days old. It was there that he held priests and scribes spellbound at the age of twelve. It was there that his ministry was centered, especially during the week leading up to his passion. Today we hear of one particular visit to the Temple during the Feast of Tabernacles. Jesus was teaching a large group of people in the Temple courtyard when a group of scribes and Pharisees interrupt him and say: Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. What do you say? Jesus knows that the scribes and Pharisees are setting a trap, and he doesn't answer right away. Instead he writes in the dirt. One might wonder if he was writing the relevant passage from the Law that condemned both partners in an adulterous relationship. He couldn't help but notice that the man was conspicuously absent. The scribes and Pharisees press him, and he answers, Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to cast a stone at her. They have nothing to say in response, and one by one they walk away. Once Jesus and the woman are alone, he asks her, Where are they? Has no one condemned you? She replies, No one, sir, and he tells her, neither do I condemn you. Go and from now on sin no more. Jesus is the one without sin, the only one with the right to judge, but he doesn't. He dismisses the woman and her accusers without condemning them. This says a lot about Jesus and the invisible God whom he makes visible. Elsewhere in John's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that he who has seen me has seen the Father. In Colossians, Saint Paul, who saw Jesus on the road to Damascus, calls him the image of the invisible God (1:15), and in today's reading from Philippians, Paul says that knowing him is the supreme good. We don't have the privilege that the disciples had of seeing Jesus in the flesh. We don't have the privilege that Paul had of seeing the Risen Lord in heavenly glory. Instead, we know Jesus through the teachings of the apostles, through sacred Scripture, through the teachings of the Church and through the sacraments, to name a few ways. In Jesus, we see God entering his Temple and dwelling among his people. And we see the kind of God he is. Not a God of judgement, but a God of forgiveness. Not a God of wrath, but a God of mercy. Not a God who conquers by the sword, but a God who conquers by the cross. This is the God who is making something truly new.

BIBLE VERSE OF THE WEEK

Matthew 7:1-2 "Stop judging that you may not be judged. For as you judge, so will you be judged..."

Reflection: It is very easy for us to judge others and think that we are better than them. However, who are we to judge. Are we perfect people who have never done anything wrong? Have we never made mistakes? If the answer is no then we have no right to judge others.

QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

¡Qué acontecimiento tan providencial! Tres años atrás, en este mismo día, Jorge Mario Bergoglio fue electo papa. Tres años atrás, en este mismo día litúrgico, el quinto domingo de Cuaresma, el Papa Francisco reza su primer Ángelus público en el Vaticano acompañado de un breve comentario. El Evangelio de hace tres años, que hoy recurre, fue el perfecto "primer Evangelio" para un papa cuyo tema constante es la misericordia de Dios y que ha declarado este Año Extraordinario Jubilar como año de la misericordia.

El Evangelio relata el encuentro de Jesús con una mujer "sorprendida en adulterio". Ella no niega la acusación, no reclama su inocencia, ni expresa arrepentimiento. Tampoco Jesús se lo exige. En aquel primer domingo del Ángelus del papa recién elegido, éste declara que la actitud de Jesús "nos conmueve". Con conmovedor silencio Jesús escribe en el suelo. Cuando por fin Jesús habla, hace notar el Papa Francisco, no hay condenaciones desdeñosas, sino sólo palabras de amor y misericordia. En efecto, Jesús silencia cualquier acusación que cualquiera de nosotros podamos jamás pronunciar contra otro pecador como nosotros: "Aquel de ustedes que no tenga pecado, que le tire la primera piedra".

San Agustín describe la escena como la miseria y la Misericordia frente a frente, pues son las dos cosas que permanecen. En el rostro misericordioso de Jesús, dice Francisco, vemos el rostro de Dios. La misericordia de Dios es una paciencia constante, es comprensión y es su disposición a esperar. Dios nunca se cansa de perdonarnos, siempre y cuantas veces se lo pidamos.
