BAPTISMS: Celebrated on the first Sunday of the month at 12:30 or 3:00 pm. Parents should call the rectory at least four weeks in advance, and must attend instructions which are held on the third Thursday of the month. Church Law requires that only Catholics in good standing are eligible to be Godparents. No Baptisms will be scheduled during Lent.

ANNOINTING OF THE SICK: We offer this sacrament to those who are seriously ill, at home or in the hospital. We urge you to contact the Rectory before someone goes to the hospital for an operation. (A priest may not be available later.)

MINISTRY OF THE SICK: Holy Communion will be brought to the sick, upon request. The bedridden or chronically ill can be placed on the "Eucharistic Ministers" Visitation Schedule.

WEDDINGS: Engaged couple must make arrangements, in person, with a priest at the Rectory, at least six months in advance.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP: We welcome all new members to our parish. Please register at the Rectory by phone or in person. Registration forms are available at the entrances to the Churches. Also, please notify the Rectory if your address has changed or if you would like to be added to the weekly envelope system.

Encyclical on the Care of Creation (6)

In his encyclical on the care of creation, Pope Francis tells us that human beings, even Christians like us, are turning our common home into a "pile of filth." We can help to atone for this destruction by always taking re-usable bags with us to the grocery store, not buying water in plastic bottles, never again throwing litter onto the ground and thinking of new ways to reduce, reuse, and recycle. Knights of Columbus – Palm Cross Sale

The Knights of Columbus will be selling beautifully decorated palm crosses at all Masses this weekend. Proceeds from the sale will go to support charitable giving to the parish and our community.

WEEKLY FOCUS

TOGETHER, WE ARE ALL JOINED INTO THE SUFFERING SERVANT

This week we are with Christ, and taken into the mystery of evil. Without giving us answers as to why there is evil in the first place, we are led with Christ to deal with it head on. The ultimate mystery is that sin has led us all into rejection of God, a rejection that is the root cause of all human suffering – separation from the source of our happiness. All of us have sinned; all of us are accomplices in bringing evil, and the suffering that results from it, into our world. How, then, are we to deal with it? Can we deal with evil apart from Christ? The events of Holy Week give us answers. The voice in today's first reading is the voice of the Old Testament's Suffering Servant, the one who personifies not only the eventual Messiah, but also the one who represents Israel – the community of sufferers. Compassion is the primary virtue to be shared; it is a community activity. The very word "compassion" means "to suffer with," and therein rests the answer to the question of how we are to deal with suffering. God knows of our powerlessness. Knowing of it, and loving us as he does, he came among us in compassion, to share in our suffering from the consequences of evil. God the Son, Jesus Christ, takes on our human condition by joining himself into our humanity, while at the same time empowering us to share in his life. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul writes about suffering – his own suffering – while recognizing that he is talking about all who suffer: Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church... (Col 1:24). In writing these words, Saint Paul is speaking of the solidarity we all share not only with each other, but our solidarity with Christ in his redemptive suffering. Our psalm response today is taken from Psalm 22 with the words, My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? It is spoken repeatedly. Once again the voice is that of the Old Testament's Suffering Servant. But at the same time, those were the last words Jesus Christ uttered at the moment of his death on the cross. Truly, God has not shielded himself from the consequences of our sins, and the human suffering that results from it. He knows us through and through, and has compassion for us. He, in Christ, suffers with and for us. But God's compassion turns into mercy, and opens up to us our eventual victory over sin, over suffering, and even over death itself. And so we now enter that week we call "holy" – a week that ends with us joining into Jesus Christ in his Easter glory.

DOMINGO DE RAMOS

El Año Jubilar de la Misericordia nos invita no sólo a ir en busca de los pequeños y humildes, sino también a contarnos nosotros mismos, humilde y felizmente, entre ellos a fin de que también nosotros podamos ser incluidos entre aquellos que Jesús acoge con su amor incondicional y su misericordia sin límites.

En su primer Domingo de Ramos como papa, Francisco declaró que Jesús, al inclinarse para curar nuestro cuerpo y nuestra alma, ha sabido comprender las miserias humanas y nos ha mostrado el rostro de la misericordia de Dios. Él ha sabido comprender las miserias humanas, ha mostrado el rostro de la misericordia de Dios y se ha inclinado para curar el cuerpo y el alma. Jesús, al tomar la iniciativa de mirar a Pedro, demuestra la misericordia con que nosotros, que también hemos negado a Jesús, somos acogidos.

“Padre, perdónalos, porque no saben lo que hacen”. Similarmente apropiado para este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia es el relato que sólo Lucas hace de que Jesús “los” perdona. ¿A quiénes? ¿A los soldados paganos, que martillan clavos en una carne inocente? ¡Perdónalos!.

También nosotros recibimos el perdón de Jesús; nosotros que tan a menudo somos como esos otros. “Hoy estarás conmigo en el paraíso”. Jesús recibe a un criminal como primer ciudadano de la creación reconciliada y restablecida. Las palabras del ladrón de “acuérdate de mí”, que no piden liberación, salvación y ni siquiera perdón, debería recordarnos a nosotros pecadores este desafío del Año Jubilar de la Misericordia: salir y acoger a todos los demás con la misma misericordia incondicional y constante con que Jesús nos acoge a nosotros.
